

Guam Police Department

INTERNAL AFFAIRS

(IA Case No. 10-086 Treatment of Person in Custody)

On October 17, 2010, Internal Affairs Section investigated a “Treatment of Person in Custody” complaint filed against three (3) uniformed members of the Guam Police Department.

This complaint alleges uniformed members failed to properly perform their duties in regards to a private citizen who was in police custody.

Based on the investigations and findings, the alleged violation of “Treatment of Person in Custody” against two (2) uniformed member were not sustained and issued a “Letter of Clearance”. The violation of “Treatment of Person in Custody” against one (1) uniformed member was sustained and issued a “verbal warning”.