(IA Case # 11-018 (Conformance To Laws) Abetting Prostitution)

On February 14, 2011, Chief of Police initiated a complaint of "Abetting Prostitution " against one of the Police Officers. It was alleged that the officer aided in promoting prostitution during his off duty hours.

An establishment was being charged with operating a Brothel in Harmon area by Federal Prosecution. One of the police officer who was called in as a witness testified that he had sex with one of the employees after purchasing "ladies drink."

Investigation revealed that the officer established his identity to the manager of the establishment and its employees by making regular checks of the establishment during his duty. The manager had asked his help to locate some of her employees, because they had left the establishment. The officer will advise the manager when asked, how to deal with situations concerning their employees. It was clear that the officer had established his authority with the manager and the employees. The alleged incident happened when the officer was off duty and visited the establishment. After purchasing ladies drink he was escorted to a private room and had sex with one of the employees.

Based on the evidence, the allegation of "Abetting Prostitution" is sustained. Chief of Police (Bordallo) issued an "Adverse Action" against the alleged officer. Case is Closed.
