IA Case # 11-073 (Conformance to Laws) Official Misconduct

On July 22, 2011, Chief of Police initiated a complaint of “Conformance to Laws (Official Misconduct)” against a police officer.

It was alleged that an officer has taken unauthorized leave and did not submit a Leave Form. Internal Affairs investigators conducted an investigation and sustained the allegation against the allege officer. Internal Affairs also cited violation of Departmental Policies and Procedures committed by two other officers regarding this case.

Chief of Police (Bordallo) issued adverse action against the three officers.
